Code of Ethics Policy

Introduction

Code of Ethics serves as a guiding framework for individuals to uphold integrity and honesty. It outlines moral principles that employees must adhere to, emphasizing personal accountability for their actions and interactions with others. The Code of Ethics Policy applies across all levels within the College.

Objectives

- The policy aims to achieve the following objectives:
- Foster an environment where stakeholders comprehend and follow College norms, rules, and regulations.
- Instill guiding principles that empower individuals to conduct professional work with honesty, responsibility, and accountability.
- Highlight the consequences when an individual deviates from the Code of Ethics.

Practices

The following practices are integral to the Code of Ethics:

- Upholding honesty and originality in work, research, and exams.
- Safeguarding personal and academic information.
- Ensuring equal treatment for all students, teachers, and employees.

Since 1988
